THE CATHOLIC PARISHES OF MILLBURY
SAINT BRIGID † OUR LADY OF THE ASSUMPTION

From the Pastor's Desk …

The past fifteen years or so have been quietly momentous in the history of our parishes, St. Brigid and Our Lady of the Assumption. My predecessor, Fr. Paul Lapalme, had been serving for several years as pastor of St. Brigid Parish, when he was asked by the Bishop to assume the pastorate of Assumption Parish as well, upon the retirement of Fr. Richard Fortin.

Though it was never formally decreed by diocesan officials at the time, this having one pastor for both Millbury parishes and the Assumption School was the beginning of the long road back to these Catholic Parishes of Millbury becoming, once again, one faith family, one faith community.

In the ensuing years, a greater number of parishioners from both parishes began to find it more and more comfortable to worship in either of our churches, feeling welcome and accepted both in their "own" church as well as in the "other" church.

Gradually, the churches shared one staff to serve both parishes, one Religious Education Program for the families and children of both parishes, one choir and musical director to lend the liturgies in both churches the beauty of sacred song, one schedule for Lord's Day Masses that made sense for both parishes, and one blessed celebration of the Holy Week services that made use of the style and worship space of both parishes.

As a parish staff, we planned for a vision for the Catholic Parishes of Millbury, not for two separate entities that would share little and come together even less. I think we rightly interpreted the divine handwriting on the church walls that we would come to be, much more, one faith community serving the Catholic people of the town of Millbury and beyond.

In keeping with that uniting vision, we prayed and worshipped together in our two beautiful churches. We proudly watched our Catholic school, Assumption School, grow and reach out to serve the children and families of the wider community. We made good use of all of the facilities on our two campuses: from the priest's residence on Waters Street, to housing for young teachers working in Catholic schools all over central Massachusetts at our former convent on Grove Street, Mary's House; to offices for all the staff and meeting places for many of our ministries at 59 Main Street; to breakfasts and dinners and St. Vincent de Paul outreach at the St. Brigid Hall; to Religious Education programs run in the Assumption Hall and the school classrooms … no building, no room, no property asset has fallen into disuse or disrepair.

Much to our Finance Council's longtime chagrin, the only thing separating our two parishes came down to the nitty-gritty of money. We were still two separate parishes. We needed two separate budgets, two separate sets of books, two separate sets of accounting. It is a situation that fails to recognize the reality of the situation here in Millbury: we are one community with a shared origin and a shared future. To remain financially divided is impractical, unwieldy, and a source of division, competition, and jealousy that undermines and does nothing to build up.

I have promised you from the pulpit over my ten years here among you that I would work to rectify this and to make official what has been the fact for a long time.

Please watch this space in our bulletin … by the way, another thing we share … as I flesh out for you what will happen in the very near future for our parishes, with your agreement and approval.

Suffice to say for this week a little Latin prayer: "Ut Unum Sint" … that they may be one!

Fr. Dan

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The day has arrived; next to Christmas, this is one of the most popular days of the year--- Super Bowl Sunday. Parties, wagers, debates and loud cries of joy or agony will mark this day as one to be discussed and remembered for the rest of the week. Even if the game is lopsided, the new commercials are always fun to watch and the half-time show is usually spectacular. There is a little something in it for everyone.

Besides strategy and skill, athletics also include sportsmanship, an attitude of fair play and respect for everyone involved: teammates, opposing team, and fans. In a sense, sports teach us about life: playing by the rules, treating others well and doing our best to succeed. Good sportsmanship sets an example, both on and off the field, for others to follow. Great athletes can be great teachers, worthy of imitation.

What kind of example do we set for others? In the Super Bowl of faith, can others see in us the Person and Presence of Jesus? Or does that only count for church? Live faith today as though the whole season of life depended on it. Because someday, it will!

~James Gaffney © Pilot Bulletins

Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

Dear Deacon Buron,

I am writing to express our sincere thanks to you for your support to Pernet Family Health Service's Holiday Giving Program with your donation of $725 in gift cards. We are thankful for your generosity this holiday season.

Thanks to your support we were able to serve 400 families in Worcester County this year. Many families continue to have tough times and difficulty finding the goods and services they need, especially during the holiday season. The contributions of kind-hearted donors like you bring much needed support to the people we serve.

This support allows us to help local families in many ways. Whether it's providing these holiday gifts and meals this time of year, assisting families in navigating community resources, providing emergency food and infant supplies, or supporting those who are going through difficult situations, we can do the work that we do because of you.

We are continually inspired by the dedication and generosity of donors like yourself who were inspired to give because you believe as we do, in the dignity and worth of each individual.

Sincerely yours,

Sheilah Dooley
